Jerry Frost

Jerry Frost, with a Masters in Art, has been exhibiting in the San Francisco/ Bay Area for over 30 years. His unique oil painting style, though changing often between abstract, figurative and landscape, is readily recognizable by his knife textures and vivid colors. Jerry paints exclusively with house painter putty knives, ranging from 2 to 8 inches wide. The following images represent several of his figurative themes, among others.

WILLIAM SOLIS

William Solis immigrated to the United States over 30 years ago. He has practiced his art continuously since his childhood in Costa Rica. He works in various mediums, including cement, wood, acrylic and oil.

The first part of this portfolio represents a mixed media technique he has developed over the past five years, incorporating gold, silver and copper leaf into oils and acrylic on canvas.

Solis lives in San Francisco, California.
